

Security Training

AMOORER
INCORPORATED

4218 Shell Street, Suite R
Capital Heights, MD 20743
Office: (301) 805-5533
Fax: (301) 805-5534

www.amoorer.com

Training

Amoorer institutes a high-level training program and policy initiative. Our training policies meet the same standards set for all of our professional services. Both clients and trainers benefit from the use of video training, as well as a variety of training tools that complement our classroom instruction. Our training instructors include law enforcement officers, retired officers, and an assortment of other highly qualified security professionals.

Curriculum
Patrol and Observation	Crimes against persons
Patrol Method	Narcotics and Dangerous drugs
Recognition of Patrol Hazards	Crimes against property
Response to Disturbances	Rules and Laws of evidence
Safety and Fire Prevention	Search and Seizure
Traffic Enforcement and Direction	Firearms safety handling
Arrest procedures and the Law	Use of force
Preservation of Crime Scene	Ethics and Professionalism
Understanding human behavior	Drug prevention
Principles of communications	Grooming
Professional Public Relations	Public space and safety
Crowd and riot control formations	Terrorism and Sabotage
Defensive tactics	Examination and Review: Inclusive to all Curriculums
Sexual harassment	Examination and Review

Outside Training Requirements
Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation (CPR)	Firearms Training
Emergency Medical Assistance (First Aid)	Classroom Dry Wet

Figure * Basic Training Security Topics
Subjects	Hours	Description
Overview of the DCPS and role of the SPO	1.0	Discussion of the mission, role, and responsibilities of the DCPS and Federal Protective Service.
Customer Oriented Protection	1.0	Discussion of the concept of customer-oriented protection and the contract Security Police Officer's role in achieving those objectives.
Role and Responsibility of the SPO	2.0	Typical duties associated with being a SPO at a DCPS facility.
Ethics and Professionalism * Parts I and II *	2.0	Pride and Professionalism: Use of contract personnel to augment, supplement, and replace civil authorities. Practical examples of proper behavior, improper behavior, pride in appearance and personal grooming are highlighted.
Principals of Communication * Parts I and II *	2.0	People Skills for the 21st Century: Instances of proper use of communications equipment and procedures. Correct and proper communications techniques are presented. Instruction will stress emergency request transmissions, required reporting of locations, patrol usage, requests for assistance, etc.

Figure **** Basic Training Security Topics

Subjects	Hours	Description
Professional Public and Media Relations * Parts I and II *	2.0	Use of basic social skills to enhance company image and improve overall relations. Practical ways of improving PR with clientele, client organizations, local, state, and Federal law enforcement organizations.
Understanding Human Behavior * Parts I and II *	2.0	Discussion of guard behavior and that of their peers, especially under stress. Recognition of mentally disturbed persons/behavior, especially as it relates to drugs and alcohol. Proper handling and reporting techniques.
The Law, Legal Authorities, Jurisdiction and Responsibilities	2.0	Discussion of the history of laws, applicable laws and regulations. Additionally, the concept of legal jurisdiction as it pertains to the contract Security Police Officer is thoroughly reviewed.
Crimes, Crime Scene Investigation, and Response to Crimes in Progress against Persons and/or Property	1.0	Cautionary measures to be exercised when coming upon a crime in progress or in the process of being committed. The element of surprise and the possibilities of encountering a crime in progress. Types of crime and officer response. Arrest procedures and the law.
Search and Seizure	1.0	Searching and Apprehension Techniques. Planning and making an arrest. Correct position and procedures for searches.
Apprehension and Arrest Authority	1.0	A thorough examination of the contract Security Police Officer's role in planning and executing an arrest.
Detection and Use of Force	2.0	Instruction on the use of force to include the various degrees of force authorized under the contract. Reporting procedures related to such use are also covered.
Crime Scene Protection	2.0	Rules and Laws of Evidence and Evidence Collection. Proper methods and procedures for preserving the crime scene; collecting and collating evidence; interviewing witnesses; etc.
Rules of Evidence	2.0	Crime Scene Response; Evidence Collection. Caution to be exercised when coming upon a crime in progress or process of being committed. The element of surprise and the possibilities of encountering a crime in progress. Types of crime. Thorough examination of alleged perpetrator's rights under the various codes of justice (military, civilian, etc.) and the security officer's role in the proper enforcement and protection of those rights.
Contract Administration	1.0	Discussion of the relationship between the contract Security Police Officer and the Government. Importance of the Duty Book.
Functional Site Orientation, Duties, and Post Orders	2.0	Individual Guard Post Orientation. Interpreting and enforcing general post orders, operating orders, assignments, functional and administrative mandates of the contract.
Patrol and Observation Recognition of Hazards	2.0	Investigation of Incidents and Accidents. Patrol theories and application. Recognition of patrol hazards. The purpose of protective patrolling, identifying the various types of protective services and the necessity for proper observation as it relates to patrol procedures.
Response to Disturbances	2.0	Discuss types of disturbances, proper approaches, and the officer's role, authorities vis-à-vis the use of force, proper control and reporting techniques.

Figure **** Basic Training Security Topics

Subjects	Hours	Description
Personnel Identification; Entry/Exit Control	1.0	Objective and methods of vehicular and pedestrian traffic control. Basic arm and band signals. SOPs will be posted at each entry point for routine personnel and vehicular entry/exit control operations; single purpose SOPs will be issued for special occasions.
Threat Levels and Threat Conditions	2.0	A discussion of the importance of identification and control of property to the physical security of the facility and role the contract Security Police Officer will play in this identification. Discuss types of disturbances, proper approaches, the officer's role and authorities vis-à-vis the use of force, proper control and reporting techniques.
Safety, Security and Fire Prevention/Protection	2.0	Basic elements of Fire Protection/Prevention and Intrusion Detection and Security Systems. Purpose and characteristics of barrier, intrusion detection, fire, life safety and individual supervision devices. CCTV as an integral part of security systems. A discussion of the importance of identification of personnel to the physical security of the facility and role the contract Security Police Officer will play in this identification.
Report Writing, Notes, Required DCPS Forms	2.0	Report Writing; Accomplishment of Security Police Forms. Various contractor and forms, reports, and logs used by the security force, and procedures for their completion. Form and Content of a Security Report - WHO, WHAT, WHEN, WHERE and WHY.
Handling Disorderly Conduct, Response to Disturbances and Other Incidents	2.0	Discuss various types of disturbances, proper approaches, and the officer's role, authorities vis-à-vis the use of force, proper control and reporting techniques. Narcotics and Dangerous Drugs recognition; profiles of typical trafficker; proper handling and reporting procedures.
OSHA Standard 29 CFR 1910, 1030	1.5	Exposure to Bloodborne Pathogens. Explanation of BP's and how transmitted; recognition; exposure control when BP's are evident/suspected; required protective equipment; prevention and antidotes; procedures to follow in event of BP emergency.
Terrorism, Bomb Threats, Bomb Search, Wrongful Destruction	2.0	Anti-Terrorism Plan/Procedures; Bomb Threat Plan/Procedures. Practical techniques for recognizing potential terrorist activities, conducting searches and reporting suspected activities. Telephone protocol for "phoned-in" bomb threats, threats of terrorist activities, etc.
Workplace Violence & Standards of Conduct	2.0	Pride and Professionalism. Use of contract personnel to augment, supplement and replace civil authorities. Practical examples of proper behavior and improper behavior. Practical ways of improving PR with client, client organizations, local, state, and Federal law enforcement organizations.
Civil Disturbances, Crowd and Riot Control	2.0	Instruction in crowd control and riot formations including emphasis on discipline, control, and cooperation with police is covered. Offensive and defensive team actions will be taught to control or neutralize a crowd. Includes handling emergency situations.
Bomb Threats, Bomb Search	2.0	Practical techniques for recognizing potential terrorist activities; conducting search, and reporting suspected activities. Telephone protocol for "phoned-in" bomb threats, threats of terrorist activities, etc.
Hostage and Potential Hostage Situations	2.0	Identifying and responding to hostage situations.

Figure **** Basic Training Security Topics

Subjects	Hours	Description
Sabotage and Espionage	2.0	Anti-Terrorism Plan/Procedures. Practical techniques for recognizing potential terrorist activities; conducting searches, and reporting suspected activities. Telephone protocol for “phoned-in” threats of terrorist activities, etc. Deterrence and practical prevention techniques presented.
Self Defense and Defensive Tactics	2.0	Practical Application in the use of Defensive Tactics. Practical application in the use of defensive tactics. Instruction incorporates defense against armed and unarmed attack, restraining holds, use of baton, and subjective compliance methods against hostile or uncooperative persons. Includes instruction on applying handcuffs.
Narcotics and Dangerous Drugs	2.0	Substance recognition; profiles of typical trafficker; proper handling and reporting procedures
Screening	2.0	Training for Linescanner X-Ray and Magnetometer Equipment will be provided to all guard force organization personnel during phase-in by either a training representative of the system manufacturer, or by a certified representative of the Federal Protective Service.
OSHA Standard 29 CFR 1910, 1030	4.0	Exposure to Bloodborne Pathogens. Explanation of BP’s and how transmitted; recognition; exposure control when BP’s evident/suspected; required protective equipment; prevention and antidotes; procedures to follow in event of BP emergency.
Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation (CPR)	8.0	(American Red Cross Certified Instructors required.) CPR procedures including basic procedures for life support and cardiac arrest relief. All guards must be CPR certified annually and carry this certification on their person while on duty. ARC “Race for Life Certificate” (Form 1747) issued.
Emergency Medical	8.0	First Aid/Buddy Care. (American Red Cross Certified Instructors required.) Emergency first aid procedures and the Heimlich maneuver. Emergency first aid procedures including immediate action to control bleeding, recognition of first-aid procedure for convulsion, epilepsy, stroke, heart attack, heat prostration and other disorders. ARC “Multi Media Standard First Aid Certificate” (Form 1730) issued.
Examination	1.0	Written Examination.
Examination Review	1.0	Oral Review.
Total Hours of Training:	80 Hrs.	